1. Baby Chick

By Aileen Fisher

Peck, peck, peck
On the warm, brown egg.
Out comes a neck.
Out comes a leg.

How does a chick.
Who's not been about,
Discover the trick
Of how to get out?

2. Robbie the Rabbit

Robbie the Rabbit is fat, fat, fat
His soft little paws go pat, pat, pat
His soft little ears go flop, flop, flop
And when Robbie runs, he goes hop, hop, hop.

3. Peter, Peter, Pumpkin-eater,

Peter, Peter, pumpkin-eater,
How I wish that you were neater.
Half the pumpkin's on your shirt.
Clean the mess, or no dessert.

Senior Group

1. Your Shadow

by Ana Espinola Collins

Your Shadow...
Is dark in colour
Like black but duller
Comes and goes
Shrinks and grows

When around
It makes no sound
And whatever you do
It follows too

So when it's near
Have no fear
It's always there
Cause you're a pair

2. Your Birthday Cake

by Rosemary Wells

Your birthday cake is made of mud
Because I cannot cook.
I cannot read a recipe or follow in a book.
I'm not allowed to use the stove
To simmer, roast, or bake.
I have no money of my own to buy a birthday cake.
I'm sure to get in trouble if I mess around with dough.
But I've made your birthday cake of mud
Because I love you so.

3. I'd like to Squeeze

by John Agard

I'd like to squeeze this round world into a new shape.
I'd like to squeeze this round world like a tube of toothpaste.
I'd like to squeeze this round world fair and square
I've like to squeeze it till everyone had an equal share.

三. 鵝過河

哥哥弟弟坡前坐，
坡上臥着一隻鵝，
坡下流着一條河。
哥哥說：「寬寬的河」，
弟弟說：「肥肥的鵝」。
鵝要過河，河要渡鵝，
不知是鵝過河，
還是河渡鵝。
